

One of the four Evangelist daughters of the late Dr. Angie Ray, Founder of Angie Ray Ministries, "Church on the Rock" of Matteson, Illinois, Kimberly L. Ray is a woman after God's own heart, seeking to lead the people of God by providing strategies and tools to empower the Church to be efficient in the ministry of intercession and deliverance.

Throughout her 20 years of ministry, Kimberly has served as an evangelical speaker delivering messages that inspire, encourage, and bring effective change in the lives of those who embrace the word of God. Kimberly's passion for God and surrendered lifestyle has led to an anointing to preach and teach the word of God with authority, revelation, and deliverance. Her insightful messages include sobering truths that challenge men and women to pray and cultivate their God-given potential in their personal, spiritual, and professional lives.

Kimberly has served as an accomplished lecturer, gifted singer, and songwriter. Her gift to motivate and uplift has given occasion to speak at University, Commencements, National Conferences, and churches all over the United States. She currently produces the internationally televised program, "A Time of Intercession", viewed on The Word Network and local Illinois stations, reaching 140 countries and over 87 million homes in America.

Kimberly is fulfilling the legacy of Godliness inspired by her late mother in accepting the appointment to Pastor "Church on the Rock". Pastor Kimberly's fiery style and charisma are inscribed in all her endeavors and pursuits. Above all, her love for the Lord Jesus Christ is constant and exceedingly great.
