I am separate selected and separated unto God - Holy unto the Lord

The apostle Peter draws upon the imagery of the Old Testament Priesthood. Their role was to be set apart for God's use in things pertaining to tabernacle/temple. They were exclusively set apart for this function. Think about your life and how it reflects the total devotion to the purposes of God. Journal your reflections.

- In your daily walk, are you deliberately seeking to function in God's service?
- I, we are called to be and become a Kingdom of Priests. How committed am I?

Reflecting Holiness

Early Morning Devotion

Read Scripture of the Day: Matthew 5:13-17

Morning Reflection with Journal Question:

In the scripture you read for today, salt and light reflect a “Kingdom Consciousness” of mind and practice. True Holiness is demonstrated when we allow God’s light to shine through us and His transforming power to impact others. Spend time in your devotion reflecting on ways in which you can demonstrate these principles in your daily living.

Many define Holiness as religious, legalistic restriction. After reflection on the Matthew 5:13-17, what does it mean to live a life of true Holiness before the Lord?
